

YALLAH

Sergio Martin Gonzalez // Lucia de Carvalho

Tienen el poder cuatro gatos,
Limpios los zapatos, llenitos los bolsillos de hacer entre ellos tratos!
Y nada cambia, nadie se arrepiente, ni siquiera se dice que lo siente!
Pero van sacando su bandera por la frontera!
Luchando por la patria...
La patria es un invento , que todos somos gente!
Y a los que están al frente que sean coherentes pués,
somos tan iguales que nos quieren diferentes

Fizeram guerra e o Amor continua a brilhar – oya, oya
Tantas fronteiras e o Amor continua a brilhar – oya, oraia
Criaram bandeiras e o Amor continua a brilhar – oya, oya
É nossa terra sorrindo pra luz do luar – oya, oraia

E a Natureza, nossa riqueza
Amazônia, coração da pureza
Quero ver o teu verde desabrochar – oya, oya
Fui na ladeira fazer zueira
Diversidade ?!? Meu Deus que beleza !
Humanidade unida e feliz a cantar..... - Oya oro Yallah !

Ter medo é normal, a vida é caminho desconhecido
Não deixe ninguém dizer que o teu irmão é um perigo
Escuta o coração, ele tem resposta a cada pedido
O Amor é a Luz da razão, Felicidade é o seu brilho, yayaaaa
Oya oro Yallah !..... - Oya oro Yallah - Yallah ! Yallah ! Yallah

Ni por raza, ni por sexo, tampoco por religión... lo siento : la Patria es un invento!
Oya! Oya, ya ya!

Fizeram guerra e o Amor continua brilhar !

YALLAH ! (translation EN)

Topic: I was visiting new friends in Tenerife and we decided to make a song together, just for fun. The rap singer, Sergio Martin, made a beautiful and engaged text about lots of things complicated in our society : climate, immigration, capitalism.... The Arabic word Yallah means « hurry up », « let's go » just to remember that, though there has always been horrible things in our world... LOVE has always been here too, so... Yallah !!! let's keep on spreading it !!!

The whole power is owned by 4 cats
With very clean shoes and full pockets by making agreements only with one another
And nothing changes, no one regrets, and not even say they are sorry
But they keep on waving their flags on frontiers !
Fighting for the fatherland
The fatherland is an invention for we are people!
As for those in front of us, they should at least be coherent because...
We are so similar that they want us to be different

They made wars and love keeps on shining – oya, oya
They drew frontiers and love keeps on shining – oya, oraia
They created flags and love keeps on shining – oya, oya
That's our earth, smiling to the moonlight – oya, oraia

And Nature, our treasure
Amazony, heart of the purity
I want to see your green blooming – oya, oya
I went to the ladeira for the party
Diversity ! What a beauty thing !
Humanity united and singing joyfully

Oya oro Yallah !

To have fear is normal, life is a way full of unknown paths
Don't let no one say that your brother is a danger to you
Listen to your heart, it has the answer to every entreaty
Love is the light of reason and happiness its brightness, yaya
Oya oro Yallah !

Oya oro Yallah !
Yallah ! Yallah ! Yallah !
